HOUSEHOLD DUTIES AND FAMILY CARES
Sincerely for a woman's strength and when wife or mother complains of fatigue, nervousness, loss of appetite or energy, she needs rest, out-of-door exercise and building up.
The first thought should be Scott's Emulsion, which is a natural food for the body. It builds up the system, restores the healthy glow, overcomes languor and makes the body strong and healthy.
Nothing equals or compares with Scott's Emulsion for just such conditions, but Scott's Emulsion is the only one that does.

BLIND SENATOR ANSWERS WOMAN'S SUIT FOR $50,000

Gore Says Charge of Attack Is a "Frame-Up" to Ruin Him

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Feb. 11.—With both sides insisting that a complete hearing before a jury was desired, the case of Mrs. Minnie E. Bond of Oklahoma City against United States Senator T. P. Gore of Oklahoma was called before District Judge George W. Clark today. Mrs. Bond is suing Senator Gore for $50,000 for alleged attempt to assault in Washington last March, 1913, and for defamation of character. Senator Gore's counsel includes A. C. Croese, brother of Gov. Croese of Oklahoma. "Let down the bars," said the blind Senator just before the trial began. "I'm ready for them. They say they can prove damaging things against my character, but before they get through I will have proved this suit a frame-up to ruin my future political career." The blind Senator was bitter in his denunciation of the suit. Three Oklahomans are scheduled to testify for the complainant that they witnessed the attempted assault. A score or more of depositions have been taken by both sides detrimental to the reputations of both the principals. Senator Gore at the trial today was surrounded by a corps of six attorneys. Mrs. Bond was represented by an equal number of lawyers. Mrs. Bond came to the courtroom with her husband, Julian R. Bond, who is a bookkeeper, but both left before Senator Gore arrived. The blind Senator was led in by D. L. Prawley, income tax collector for Texas and Oklahoma, and followed by Mrs. Gore. The political element crowded early in the examination of prospective jurors. Attorney Giddings, for Mrs. Bond, asked each venireman whether the prestige of the United States Senate would influence him in Senator Gore's favor or whether defense testimony by high party leaders in Oklahoma would prejudice him. During the questioning of jurors Senator Gore faced the jury box, his eightfold eyes turned toward the particular veniremen being questioned.

TRIED TO HARPOON WAY TO FREEDOM

"Wind-Jamming" Accordion Gave a Dying Yell When Patrick Spring Grew Angry.

Patrick Spring, blue water sailor, was taking his ease in the reading room of the Seaman's Church Institute at No. 25 South street this afternoon when Antonio Marino, an Italian sailor with earrings, started playing the doleful strains of the Miserere on a wheezy accordion. Spring ordered the tuneless Marino to "heave to on his old wind-jamming instrument" or else play something cheerful. Marino failed and then Spring seized the accordion and jammed its bellows till it burst asunder, releasing a moan that brought sailors running from all parts of the building as if somebody had just yelled "all hands." Spring was trying to make Marino

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back Its Color and Lustre with Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.
